

With SEFID, you are in safe hands:

As a trust management and auditing specialist, we have been providing sound, independent advice to private individuals and companies for over 30 years.

We now offer one combined company for all your business needs. We provide tailor-made solutions and advice in accounting, audit, trust and tax services and combine all of this expertise in our management consultancy practice.

At SEFID, our experienced and highly trained specialists work hard to build enduring, personal relationships with private individuals and companies. We understand that personal contact and mutual trust form the foundations of long-term partnerships.

Our number one priority is you, our client. When you come to us, you are more than a client: you become our partner. Our diligent specialists work with you to deliver bespoke solutions to all of your business needs. We are proud to uphold the highest professional standards, ensuring that you stay competitive and compliant now and in the future.

Our extensive know-how and network of international and domestic specialists across the business spectrum mean that we can leverage the necessary expertise to provide our clients with bespoke advice. We offer our guidance in English, French and German.

We are proud to provide local expertise with an international perspective. As a member of Nexia International, a global network of independent auditing and tax consultancy companies, SEFID is connected to 20,600 specialists across 590 offices in 105 countries.

Our new name reflects our company philosophy: SEFID stands for security, expert knowledge and trust (fides) – focusing on truly Swiss-style high-quality work and comprehensive, client-based consulting.

We look forward to building a successful partnership together!
